

Privacy Policy for "Virality" Chrome Extension

Last Updated: November 8th, 2023

1. Data Collected

"Virality" Chrome extension collects the following personally identifiable data from users:

- License key
- Email address
- Name

2. Purpose of Data Collection

We collect this data to:

- Track the number of credits or uses associated with a user's account.
- Enable users to purchase more credits or uses.
- Provide users with account-related functionality within the extension.

3. Data Storage

The collected data is securely stored in a database. We utilize "Supabase," a trusted Backend-as-a-Service provider that runs on Amazon Web Services (AWS) for database management.

4. Data Usage

The collected data is used exclusively for the purposes mentioned above, within the extension.

5. Data Sharing

We do not share the collected data with any third parties.

6. Data Security

The database containing user information is protected with strong security measures, including row-level security, and it benefits from the security features built into Supabase.

7. Data Retention

User data is retained indefinitely. However, users have the right to request the deletion of their data.

8. User Access and Control

Users can request access to and control over their data by emailing support@viralityai.com. They can request data edits or deletion.

9. User Consent

Users provide express consent to the collection and storage of their data when they download the "Virality" Chrome extension and complete the onboarding process.

10. Cookies and Tracking

The "Virality" extension does not use cookies or tracking mechanisms.

11. Data Deletion

Users can request the deletion of their data from our database by contacting support@viralityai.com.

12. Updates to Privacy Policy

Any updates to this privacy policy will be communicated to users through the extension.

13. Contact Information

For privacy-related inquiries or concerns, please contact us at support@viralityai.com.
